RIDE ON FROZEN GROUND

MYSTERY OF FAME

Everywhere you're standing by it's always been a shame Everything you're searching for
is the Mystery of Fame

You dream yourself into a dream
You set yourself right on the scene Images within your eyes You've got to choose, you throw the dice!

You're living in a fantasy
There is no time for you and me You're all eyes for your career
I really think, you're getting weird
You say you're acting pretty good I'm working just to get the food
Your mirror seems to be your friend
But will you love it in the end?

Everywhere you're going to the people look at you Everyone you're talking to the people see through you

Everywhere you're standing by
it's always been a shame
Everything you're searching for
is the Mystery of Fame

You say you'll be a superstar and you are able to go far Dancing is your destiny
I wonder if I set you free
You say your voice is loud and clear I know, you're whining in my ear
Your talk is cheap and far from true Someday it's coming back to you

Everywhere you're going to
the people look at you Everyone you're talking to
the people see through you Everywhere you're standing by
it's always been a shame
Everything you're searching for
is the Mystery of Fame

Everywhere you're going to
the people look at you Everyone you're talking to
the people see through you

Everywhere you're standing by
it's always been a shame
Everything you're searching for
is the Mystery of Fame
