

EXHAUST

RIDE ON FROZEN GROUND

BREAKFAST AT 5 A.M.

The Sun goes down
the city life awakes
Multicoloured neon signs show your way
Staying power is a great demand tonight
Party on! We'll turn the day into night

We're hungry - On the streets tonight
The dawning - The clouds are purple again
Good Morning!

In the dawning... of the morning
We have breakfast at 5 a.m.

The Sun goes down
and the worker sleeps alone
His wife has left him and her home
He's dreaming of his early carefree days
Staying up they turned the night into day

We're hungry - On the streets tonight
The dawning - The clouds are purple again
Good Morning!

In the dawning... of the morning
We have breakfast at 5 a.m.

Have the time of your life tonight
Sleep all day and stay up all night
In the dawning of the morning

Broad awake in the clubs tonight
The next stop is a breakfast at 5 a.m.
In the dawning (a.m.) of the morning
Let's make a night to remember!
