Rock band Exhaust Releases Third Concept Album

New Exhaust CD 'Flame of Burning Fire' out now

The band follows up on the two previous successful CD albums and releases the third part of the concept album series. Rocking songs with strong drum and keyboard parts and guitar solos heat up the listeners!

The theme of this album is quite clear: Fire! Appropriately, the CD comes with rocking and roaring songs, in which the band strikes hard tones. At the same time, Exhaust remains true to its own distinctive sound, combining hard guitar and drums with soft melodies to create complex compositions.

„There are a lot of new songs on the album that weren't actually planned. We were very inspired while composing the songs," guitarist Zappo tells. „In the end, as a result, we have more new songs on the album than old ones, and you can definitely hear that modern influence."

In the 80s, the four musicians of Exhaust had a steady audience in German East Westphalia and neighboring Lower Saxony: there was hardly a town where the guys with the unusual stage names Borsten, Akki, TVK & Zappo didn't perform. In the meantime, the band's work has focused on producing sophisticatedly arranged yet catchy rock songs.

What Exhaust had started in 1984 with the self-produced single „Interceptor“, found its continuation in 2015 in the form of the album „Secret Of The Sands“, which became a considerable sales success within a short time.

The now released successor „Flame of Burning Fire“ is also distributed via the website exhaust-rock.de and is available via all relevant music streaming services such as Spotify, Amazon Music, Deezer or Apple Music. In total, the songs are streamed worldwide in 200 countries on 70 portals (!).

PRESS RELEASE

EXHAUST

New Album „Flame of Burning Fire“

Release Date: July 23rd 2020 / Sound Barrier Records

After the success of the first two CD albums SECRET OF THE SANDS (2015) and RIDE ON FROZEN GROUND (2018), which together have received over 1.4 million plays on Spotify, Apple Music & Co. by July 2020, Exhaust presents a worthy successor with the release of the new album FLAME OF BURNING FIRE.

This band is not out for commercial mainstream success and you can also notice the joy of playing and the desire to experiment in the songs. Exhaust has a distinctive sound of unusual compositions with arrangements ranging from hard to classic and features recurring uses of orchestral instruments.

Together with melodic classic elements Flame of Burning Fire finds a balance from soft to hard rock. Compared to the two previous albums, this production is more varied and thus draws the listener into its spell.

The album is peppered with highlight songs like DAYTONA RED LINE and HEAVY DRUMMING, which show the rocking side of the band and really take the listener along, especially under the headphones. In the middle, Exhaust shows a new side with the rock ballad FLAME FOR ETERNITY. Songs like NEW TOMORROW and MODERN WARRIOR have that unmistakable Exhaust sound and top off the album. Despite the many variations that Flame of Burning Fire offers, the band has remained true to themselves and their style.

Exhaust has put the utmost effort into this production. In addition to the successful sound concept, the design of the title cover and the 12-page booklet with all the lyrics is again worth seeing. Visually, the album continues in line with the two previous albums.

Flame Of Burning Fire is an exceptional rock album produced with great passion, which is already selling well online from the start and raises the appetite for more.

According to the label, a sequel is already in the works: The follow-up album is titled HAVOC ON THE SEA. We can be curious...

Look What Happened ... The biography of Exhaust

1981 - 1982

Zappo (guitar), Akki (drums), TVK (vocals), Mom (guitar) and Borsten (bass) found the band Exhaust. The ambiguous name is program: „Exhaust“ (fast, loud & out with it) and „exhaustion“.

1983 - 1984

Mom and TVK quit and pursue a new German wave project with their new band „Wendepunkt“. For them Jay Bee (bass) and Frank König (vocals) join Exhaust, Borsten swaps the bass for the lead guitar. The new musical direction: heavy metal with elaborate compositions.

In April 1983 Exhaust record the songs „Interceptor“ and „Strong Saxons of the North“ in the studio and make a single out of it. It even leads the Minden sales charts for a short time.

1984 - 1988

Frank and Jay Bee quit in 1984, TVK rejoins as keyboarder, Zappo changes from guitar to bass. Borsten additionally takes over the part of the lead singer.

The music style changes, becomes more melodic and a bit catchier. The studio recordings „Fulfillment Of a Tale“ and „The King Will Come“ are produced, which make it into the radio program and receive good reviews from the trade press.

In this formation Exhaust are successfully on the road for 4 years in clubs and on various stages in Germany. In addition to their own songs, the 2-hour program also includes covered songs such as „Don't you“ by Simple Minds, „White Wedding“ by Billy Idol or „The Power of Love“ by Frankie goes to Hollywood in their own hardcore version.

An uninsured fire in the rehearsal room, in which large parts of the equipment are destroyed, caused a forced break of eight years.

1996 - 2015

Back together in the rehearsal room, Exhaust decided to record and release all songs (and there are dozens of them) in the coming years. In addition, the four musicians compose many new pieces. The band sets up a studio to record old and new songs under professional conditions.

In 2015, the album SECRET OF THE SANDS was released. Radio interviews and press articles supported the release. In addition to direct CD sales, more than 200,000 streams were recorded on music portals by the end of 2017.

2015 - 2018

In August 2017, the single VIKINGS NIGHT was released online and went on to over 90,000 live streams to date. In July 2018, BREAKFAST AT 5 AM followed, reaching over 3,000 plays within 2 weeks, the fan base is obviously growing steadily...

The second concept album RIDE ON FROZEN GROUND was released in August 2018, featuring seven new productions in addition to three well-known songs (which real fans will surely remember from the past).

2018 - 2020

The singles DAYTONA RED LINE and FLAME FOR ETERNITY are released and heat up the fans until the release of the third studio album. In July 2020, the time has finally come and the third concept album FLAME OF BURNING FIRE is released!
