SECRET OF THE SANDS

WINDS OF DECEPTION

[ZAPPO]

It seems like everyone's aware
Of the future we will share
Of the history we call our own

Wings of inception have appeared
The common sense has disappeared
Winds of deception turn the page

The winds are howling in the night
The clouds are darkening the sky
The storm will blow away the light of day

Wings of inception have appeared
The common sense has disappeared
Winds of deception turn the flag

Winds of inception - turn the sight
Winds of perception - bring the fright
Winds of deception turn the heads

Winds of inception - turn the sense
Winds of perfection - turn the right
Winds of deception twist the mind what did people think, as the dictator took over?

... how could they let it happen
